Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, yellowish paper. The script is dense and continuous across the page, with some larger characters that may represent specific names or titles. The overall appearance is that of a formal or official record.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is written in a fluid, connected style across approximately 20 lines. The ink is dark, and the paper shows signs of age and wear. The script is characteristic of the early modern period in the region, possibly a form of Persian or Ottoman Turkish cursive. The text is dense and fills most of the page, with some lines starting with larger, more decorative characters that may indicate the beginning of a section or a specific address.
