

Handwritten Japanese text in cursive style (sōsho). The text is written on a horizontal strip of paper, likely a page from a book or a scroll. The characters are fluid and connected, characteristic of the cursive style. The text is arranged in a single line across the width of the strip. The paper shows signs of age, with some discoloration and wear.

Handwritten Japanese calligraphy in cursive style (sōsho). The text is written on a horizontal strip of paper, likely a page from a book or a scroll. The characters are dense and fluid, characteristic of the cursive hand. The text is arranged in approximately 15 vertical columns, reading from right to left. The ink is dark and the paper is aged and yellowed. The overall appearance is that of a traditional Japanese manuscript.
