Oxford, 12th August, 1871.

My dear Mr. Inoye.

Enclosed you will find 3 letters - I send it for your information. - Please read with attention the letters of Messrs. Mourilyan & Heumann & Co. I already advise Mr. Mallatone, for that respect - I can see their meaning and their plans to deal with the Boos. This establishment is a Mint not "Bank" or "Exchange house" - I did my best on the matter - but at present we are waiting the arrival of Mr. Ho who I was told expected today from Gen. I don't write to him by this opportunity because he is in the way. — After his arrival here we shall arrange <sup>the matter</sup>

better — (I refer about the Boos.)

I am very busy — too much to prolong this —

With best wishes
of

Yours very truly
G. R. Briggs
