

Handwritten calligraphy in cursive script (草書) on a rectangular piece of aged paper. The text is arranged in two vertical columns. The right column contains the characters '一', '行', '所', '在', '心', '也'. The left column contains '六', '心', '之', '本', '也'. There are several red seals: a circular seal on the left side, a square seal in the middle, and a rectangular seal at the bottom left. A red seal is also visible on the right side, partially overlapping the characters '行' and '在'.
