Handwritten Japanese text in cursive style (sōsho) on aged paper. The text is arranged in approximately 10 horizontal lines, reading from right to left. The characters are highly stylized and fluid, characteristic of the cursive script. The paper shows signs of age, including yellowing and some faint smudges. The text appears to be a continuous passage, possibly a letter or a section of a diary. The right edge of the page shows the binding of the book, and the left edge shows the adjacent page with some visible text.

Main body of handwritten Japanese text in cursive style (sōsho), written across the page with some ink bleed-through from the reverse side.
