

Handwritten Japanese text in vertical columns, likely a collection of haikai or similar poetry. The text is densely packed and spans across the top and middle sections of the left page.

Red seal impression, likely a signature or studio mark of the artist.

