

Calligraphy on the fan, likely a haikai or similar poem. The characters are written in a cursive style (sōsho). The text is arranged across the fan's surface, following the curve of the ribs. The characters are: 月夜 (Tsukiyo) on the left, 舟 (Fune) in the middle, and 舟 (Fune) on the right. A red seal is visible near the bottom right of the fan's surface.
