

Handwritten Japanese calligraphy in cursive style (sōsho). The text is arranged in vertical columns, reading from right to left. The characters are highly stylized and fluid, characteristic of the cursive script. The text appears to be a single continuous piece of writing, possibly a signature or a short passage.

Handwritten text in cursive script, likely a letter or document. The text is written vertically on a piece of paper. The characters are highly stylized and difficult to decipher. The text appears to be a mix of Chinese characters and possibly some Latin or English words, though they are not clearly legible. The overall style is that of a personal or official correspondence from the late imperial Chinese period.
