

Handwritten Arabic script on a yellowish strip of paper. The text is arranged in two columns, with the right column being larger and more prominent. The script is a cursive style, likely Maghrebi or Andalusian. The right column contains the words 'كلمة' (Kalima) and 'الله' (Allah), which together form the Basmala 'Bismillah'. The left column contains the words 'بسم' (Bism) and 'الله' (Allah), which also form the Basmala. The text is written in black ink on a yellowish background. There is a blueish-grey smudge or stain on the right side of the strip, partially overlapping the text.
