

Vertical columns of Chinese text in seal script, arranged in a dense grid. The characters are highly stylized and difficult to decipher. The text is organized into approximately 10 columns, with varying lengths. Some characters are larger and more prominent than others, possibly indicating a title or key figures. The overall appearance is that of a formal document or a collection of inscriptions.

A vertical strip of small, repetitive text or markings along the right edge of the page, likely a scanning artifact or a reference code.
