

Handwritten Japanese calligraphy on a piece of paper. The text is written in a cursive style (sōsho) and is enclosed in a blue rectangular border. The text is arranged in vertical columns, reading from right to left. The characters are: 信長御友 (Nobun no Tomi) on the far left, followed by a signature (likely Nobun) and a date (likely 1582). A red square seal is visible in the upper right corner of the calligraphy area. A red rectangular stamp with the number '414' and 'A 263 82' is located in the top right corner of the page.

This image shows a blank page from a ledger or account book. The page is cream-colored and features a blue rectangular border. Inside the border, there are 12 vertical columns of varying widths, designed for recording financial data. The columns are arranged in a regular grid pattern. There are some faint stains in the upper left corner of the page. On the right edge, there are some faint, partially visible characters, likely from the adjacent page.
