

Handwritten Japanese text in cursive (sōsho) style. The text is arranged in approximately 12 vertical columns, reading from right to left. The characters are highly stylized and fluid. The first column on the right contains the characters 山 (mountain) and 谷 (valley), followed by 中 (middle), 心 (heart), and 之 (possessive particle), and finally 金 (gold) and 港 (harbor). The text continues in similar fashion across the other columns, though the characters are more difficult to decipher due to the cursive script.
