

Handwritten Japanese text in cursive style (sōsho). The text is written on a horizontal strip of paper, likely a page from a book or a scroll. The characters are densely packed and flow from right to left. The ink is dark, and the paper shows signs of age and wear. The text appears to be a continuous passage, possibly a letter or a section of a narrative. The characters are highly stylized and interconnected, characteristic of the cursive style. The overall appearance is that of a historical document or a piece of calligraphy.
