Handwritten Chinese text in cursive script (caoshu), arranged in vertical columns from right to left. The characters are highly stylized and fluid, typical of the cursive style. The text appears to be a continuous passage, possibly a letter or a piece of calligraphy. The columns are approximately 15-20 characters wide. The paper is aged and yellowed, with some visible texture and slight discoloration. The background is a dark, solid color, likely the surface the paper is resting on.
