Yokohama 6th January 1874.

Sir

owing to an error of one of my Assistants, the memorandum prepared last week for your Excellency of the number of copies of the Japan Mail transmitted to Europe & America for the Japanese Government was not accompanied, as it should have been, with the numbers of the "Japan Mail" of which mention was made.

I now send these* and trust that your Excellency will recognize the large amount of labour which has been expended

* omitting # 12 & 18 of which there is not one copy left.

on the transmission of intelligence regarding Japan to Europe.

I avail myself of this opportunity of wishing your Excellency the compliments of the season.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most obedient servant,
W. S. Howell
