Your Excellency

I have duly received Y. Excellency's kind letter and in lovely vase so kindly sent by J. E. for my acceptance both of which were duly delivered me by Mr. G. Sahuvar in the 27th of Aug. last at Bangalore. I cannot suffi-ciently thank Y. Excellency for the very kind sentiments conveyed in the letter. Y. Excellency's solicitude for the best of India & the Indians has been

P. S.

I am sending an Album of Mysore views & scenes for J. Ingleton's kind acceptance & trust that they may interest you. Also a photo very too well-known to need my mentioning it here.

I have done all that was possible to help Mr. Sakurai in his inquiries.

I was very much concerned to read of J.'s illness recently.
Thank God that you have recovered from it. May we be spared long to enable you to carry on your good work in the mission with & prayer of

Yours very sincerely
M. Kantaraja Rao
