Nedo July 23. 1872.

Dear Sir,

With regard to the business which I spoke to your ^{Excellency} about the other day, I have spoken again with Mr. Goto and have explained to him that it is necessary that I should leave Japan at once.
I hope therefore that you will kindly use your powerful influence to induce His Excellency Sanjo Daijo Daijin to conclude the telegraph business as soon as possible.

I have the honour to be,

Dear Sir,

Your Excellency's very faithfully

A. B. Mitford.
