My dear Consul Okuma,

I should have come up to see you before the end of the year, but we have all been ill for some time from influenza, and the doctor will not allow me to leave the house more than necessary. I hope to have the pleasure of seeing you early in 1891, meanwhile Mr. Wabun and myself beg to wish you, Consul Okuma, and your son all possible happiness.

happiness for the future :-

For some time past, I have been consulting with Mr. Nishimura, and Mr.
Kazutsugu Saburi, about a very important new invention which has been placed in my hands, and which cannot fail to yield magnificent results in this country!

I am sure you and your friends would be much interested in it, and I have asked Mr. Saburi to call upon you on the 3rd Inst., in the hope that you will allow allow him to fully explain it to you:-

If you would kindly do this, I will call afterwards with Mr. Saburi, to explain any points you might require further information on.

Repeating our warmest wishes and compliments

Believe me

Dear Aunt Okuma

Yours, most sincerely & gratefully
