"THE ORIENTAL BANK CORPORATION"

Yokohama 10. Dec 1870

Dear Mr. Ho.

I have just time to advise you that I have a telegram from London saying that the "Lay Loan has been settled amicably" -

I am sure you will be very glad to hear it. It must be settled, I suppose, on the terms I showed to you the other day.

I think it will be as well to say nothing publicly about this settlement, until we know more about it.

I have received a mass of letters & papers about the

Some dispute, & a protest from Mr Hay against his having been dismissed by the Government, - but then I really have not time to attend to today.

They are, however, of less consequence now than we know the result of the dispute.

In haste, Yours faithfully

Russell
