

21st May '79

Dear Mr. Okuma,

I am anxious to bring Mr. Crombie, the new manager of the Oriental Bank, to see you; and with your kind permission, we will call at your house on Saturday next at about four o'clock.

Silk is up to 18½ in London, and exchange is up to 3½ here and up in China & India. Silver is also up in London as the German Government have stopped selling Silver at last. If the news of Silk is true we shall have a fresh advance in Exchange certainly.

Yours faithfully

W. G. G.

ロキソソ