

Yokohama 4 January 1873

Sir!

Having left the Employ of Messrs
E. P. Mitchell with whom I have been as Bookkeeper & Corresponding Clerk for the last 4 years & being desirous to enter the services of the Japanese government I would feel much obliged by your informing me at your convenience if there is any vacancy in your Department.

I trust you will excuse me thus troubling you & beg to assure you that a few words in reply will be much appreciated by me.

I may mention that besides being well acquainted with the usual office work I am conversant with several European languages.

Hoping you will pardon
my liberty

I am

Sir

your obedient servant
A. Rosefeld.
