The tone of the Silk Market has improved during the last fortnight, and business has been more spirited than for some time past. In China Silk the bulk of the transactions has been in medium and common Tsatlees, and in good and medium Taysaams, for all of which full rates have been obtained. Cantons have not been in much demand. The first unloadings of new Japans have been readily taken, and last season's Silk has found buyers to a fair extent at prices fully 1/ per lb. higher than those obtained in the late Public Sales. The deliveries may be considered satisfactory.
