TELEGRAPHIC ADDRESS,
CROOKHAVEN YOKOHAMA.

Yokohama, 1st April 1891

Dear Cousin Okuma,

I enclose you a few copies of the prospectus of the Bank of China I am bringing out to-day. Will you kindly mention the matter to a few of your friends. Very strong Chinese influence is behind the Bank, all the capital is already promised, and the shares will go to a premium at once.

We are bringing out the Bank in such a hurry, that I cannot visit you, but I will try to keep a few of the shares for you or your friends in case you would like to have them. The application list for shares closes on Sunday at 3 p.m. Mr. Forbes who is to be Chairman of our Bank was Chairman of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, and he has left that Bank to join us:-

Believe me

very dear Aunt

Yours, most Sincerely

W. C. O'Brien
