

Handwritten Japanese text in cursive (sōsho) style, arranged in vertical columns. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper with some damage and staining. The characters are dark ink, and the overall appearance is that of a historical document or letter. The text is organized into two main sections, one on the left and one on the right, with a central vertical line of text separating them. The right section begins with the characters '多分' (たぶん) at the top right. The left section begins with 'おはよう' (ohayou) at the top left. The text is dense and difficult to read due to the cursive style and some fading.
